

REMARKS

Claims 1-15 are pending in the application. It is gratefully acknowledged that the Examiner has still found allowable subject matter in Claims 8-15. The Examiner has rejected Claims 1-15 under 35 U.S.C. §112, second paragraph, as being indefinite. The Examiner has rejected Claims 1-6 under 35 U.S.C. §102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent Application Pub. No. 2003/0171133 to Mizuta et al. Claim 7 has been rejected under 35 U.S.C. §103(a) as being unpatentable over Mizuta et al. in view of U.S. Patent No. 6,272,324 to Rudisill et al.

Regarding the rejection of Claim 1 under §112, second paragraph, for being indefinite, the Examiner states that the term “facing outward” does not specifically describe the actual position of the guide holes in the structure of the communication device. Claim 1 has been amended to clearly define the position of the guide holes in the structure of the device to recite positioning guide holes in a direction outwardly from a liquid crystal display. Accordingly, withdrawal of the rejection is respectfully requested.

Submitted herein is a Declaration under 37 CFR §1.131. As exhibits thereto are an invention disclosure covering the claimed invention, a certified translation of the invention disclosure, and a certified English translation of Korean Patent Application 2003-4309, from which the present application claims priority. The Declaration and supporting exhibits establish a reduction to practice prior to October 25, 2002.

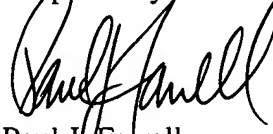

Mizuta et al. was filed on October 25, 2002. The present application was filed on December 2, 2003 with a priority claim to January 22, 2003. Therefore, based on the Declaration, Mizuta et al. does not qualify as prior art. Based on at least the foregoing, any rejection based wholly or in part on Mizuta et al. must be withdrawn.

Independent Claim 1 is believed to be in condition for allowance. Without conceding the patentability per se of dependent Claims 2-7, these are likewise believed to be allowable by virtue of their dependence on amended independent Claim 1. Accordingly, reconsideration and withdrawal of the rejections of dependent Claims 2-7 is respectfully requested.

Accordingly, all of the claims pending in the Application, namely, Claims 1-15, are believed to be in condition for allowance. Should the Examiner believe that a telephone conference or personal interview would facilitate resolution of any remaining matters, the Examiner may contact Applicant's attorney at the number given below.

Respectfully submitted,
